Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a manuscript. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some ink bleed-through visible from the reverse side. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of historical cursive handwriting. The text appears to be a continuous passage, possibly a letter or a section of a larger work. There are some dark spots and irregularities in the ink, suggesting age and wear. The overall appearance is that of a historical document or a page from an old book.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is organized into approximately 10 horizontal lines. The script is dense and flowing, characteristic of early modern handwriting. There are two prominent dark circular marks, possibly holes or ink blots, on the right side of the page. The text appears to be a continuous narrative or record, possibly related to a legal or administrative matter, given the formal nature of the script and the presence of a large initial 'C' at the beginning of the first line.
